From the Antwerp Courant, dated Decemb. 27.

Catanazaro in Calabria, Nov. 22.

THE 20th Inſtant in the Night 9 Sicilian Veſſels attempted to ſurprize the ſmall Town of Squillace: They landed 450 Men in the Gulf of that Name, but the Inhabitants of the Town having Notice of their Deſign by a Deſerter, ran to Arms and prepar'd to receive them. About Midnight the Sicilians came before the Land-Gate of Squillace, paſs'd the Ditch, fix'd a Petard to the Gate, and burſt it open: But the Townſmen being aſſiſted by a Company of Soldiers, had drawn off 2 heavy and 4 light Cannon from the Sea Battery, loaded them with Cartridges fill'd with Muſquet-balls, and plac'd them in the Street fronting the ſaid Gate; and when the Enemy ruſh'd in thinking the Town was their own, they gave them a Volley, which laid above 80 of them dead on the Spot and wounded a greater Number, and made the reſt ſcour back to their Ships in the utmoſt Terrour and Diſorder. On this Occaſion not one of the Townſmen was kill'd, and only 3 wounded.

Naples, Dec. 6. Count Thaun our Viceroy, gives great Application to the Affairs civil and military that are under his Direction. Several Communities of the Kingdom having receiv'd Order from his Excellency to ſend hither the Gold and Silver Money of K. Philip's Coyn to be melted down and new-ſtamp'd with the Effigies of King Charles III, have petition'd their Magiſtrates to be excus'd from that Trouble; the rather becauſe the Number of King Philip's Coyns that have been made current, is but inconſiderable. The Time preſcrib'd by Cardinal Pignatelli our Archbiſhop for ſetting at Liberty Don Gio de Torres, who was Secretary to the Duke d' Eſcalona, being expir'd without any Regard had to his Monitory, his Eminency has caus'd a Placard to be publickly affix'd, by which he Excommunicates all that are concern'd in the detaining that Gentleman Priſoner: But Count Thaun on his Side, has given Order for proceeding forthwith againſt the Cardinal, for aſſuming ſo much Power to himſelf.

From the Amſt. Cour. Dec. 29. and Leid. Gaz. Dec. 30.

Turin, Dec. 7. The 5th Inſtant Advice was brought hither by an Expreſs from Milan, that Prince Eugene was gone from thence for the Court of Vienna. 'Tis not doubted that General will be perſwaded to go to Catalonia, in Caſe the Allies will put him into a Condition to act Offenſively againſt the Enemy, by ſending conſiderable Succours thither. On the other Hand our Duke will be extremely pleas'd to have the intire Command of the Forces that are to Act on this Side, promiſing himſelf that he ſhall alſo be put into a Condition by the Allies to act Offenſively againſt the French: And to that End, 'tis hop'd the King of Pruſſia will let his Troops continue in Italy. His Royal Highneſs continues his new Levies, and has ſtrictly charg'd all the Officers of his Foot to recruit their Companies without Loſs of Time: And notwithſtanding the Heſſians are recall'd home and other Troops detach'd for Catalonia, his Royal Highneſs cannot want a conſiderable Army for the next Campaign. Signior Ricaldini, who on ſeveral Occaſions had diſtinguiſh'd himſelf honourably, is made Intendant-General of the Artillery. Count Tarino who is gone to the Court of Vienna to receive the Inveſtiture of the Alexandrin, the Lomeline, and the Valley of Sezia, which the Emperor has made over to the Duke of Savoy, is ſhortly expected back. The Woollen-Drapers of this Country have complain'd to his Royal Highneſs of the Decay of the Cloth-Manufacture, occaſion'd by the Importation of Cloth from England Holland and France: In the mean time the Manufacture of rich Silks flouriſhes ſo much, that Workmen enow cannot be had.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Decem. 29.

Vienna, Dec. 14. This Court made ſome Difficulty to let the Heſſians and other Troops that are coming out of Italy march through Tirol; the Allies took it ill; but this Court were in ſome Meaſure compell'd to refuſe Paſſage to thoſe Troops through that Country, becauſe the Boors had declar'd they would not ſuffer any foreign Forces to paſs; and to have offer'd Violence to them might ('twas fear'd,) occaſion a general Inſurrection: However, at laſt his Imperial Majeſty has thought fit to give Leave for the Heſſian Horſe to paſs through Tirol; and caus'd it to be notify'd to the Allies accordingly. The Emperor is very well ſatisfy'd with Count Martinitz's Management while he was Viceroy of Naples: Notwithſtanding which, 'tis ſaid that Count will retire from publick Buſineſs and live on his Eſtate. The Envoy of Munſter, who has been here ſome time to receive the Emperour's Inveſtiture of that Biſhoprick in the Name of his Maſter, meets with Obſtacles; for which 'tis alledg'd by our Miniſtry he has given juſt Occaſion by taking upon him to vilify this Court: The Biſhop ſupports him, and inſiſts that he be acknowledg'd according to his Character.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Decemb. 27.

Baſil, Dec. 16. The Marquis de Rochegude, who was ſent to the King of Sweden on the Part of the Proteſtant Cantons, is return'd to Zurich; and having had Audience of the Regents of that Canton, made Report to them that his Swediſh Majeſty had very favourably receiv'd the Letter writen to him by the ſaid Cantons, in behalf of the poor French Proteſtants that are in their King's Galleys for the ſake of Religion.
